GERMAN IN DANVILLE

It Was One of the Most Brilliant Events of the Season.

WEDDING AT HIGH NOON

A Large Number of Guests Were Present at the Marriage of Miss Annie Dillard Gravelly to Mr. Richard Ivy Smith, in Danville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., April 18.—One of the most brilliant society events of the week was the beautiful Easter german given by the young men of the city in the Municipal Hall Wednesday night. The celebration of gayeties during Lent seem to have whetted the appetite for most pleasures, and the evening was one of universal enjoyment. The german was led by Mr. J. Stanley Abner, who is justly famed for his ability in this line, and he introduced a number of beautiful figures new to Danville dancers.

Those present were: Miss Williams, of Fayetteville, N. C., with Mr. Alex. Purvis, Miss Alice Cummings with Mr. Thos. Skinner, Miss India Watson with Mr. Edward Cabiness, Miss Bessie Watson with Mr. J. J. Fitchett, Jr., Miss Madge Vass with Mr. Kenneth Noel, Miss Mabel Robinson with Mr. A. F. Patton, Miss Annie Lee Penn with F. H. Anderson, Miss Katherine Patton with Mr. H. Vass, Miss Lilly Wemple with Mr. Jordan, of Bedford City, Va., Miss Bessie Holland with Dr. J. M. Robinson, Miss Annie Salzman with Mr. J. T. Catlin, Jr., Miss Gava Salzman with Mr. L. M. Walker, Miss Ellen Ruffin with Mr. J. M. Featherstone, Miss Ethel Lipscomb with Mr. W. T. Gravelly, Miss Mary Gravelly with Mr. W. W. Waddell, Jr., Miss Lilly Jennings with Mr. Minson, of North Carolina; Miss Daisy Hancock with Mr. Ballard Keen, Miss Estelle Tucker with Mr. Archie Gray, Miss Fannie Covington with Mr. Claiborne White, Miss Walker with Mr. R. S. Philter, Jr., Miss Sacsusky, of Paces, with Mr. Willard Morrison, Miss Easley, of South Boston, with Mr. Hunt Wimble, Miss Lizzie Conrad with Mr. Campbell, of Cree, and Mrs. J. W. Decker, Jr., of Chambers; Mrs. L. C. Berkeley, Jr., Mrs. H. F. Vass, Mrs. J. A. Patton, Mrs. Thomas Hamlin.

A large number of guests were present at the marriage on Wednesday at high noon of Miss Annie Dillard Gravelly, one of Danville's most popular young society women, to Mr. Richard Ivy Smith, of the Continental Tobacco Company, and a prominent young society man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Clifton, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. W. L. Gravelly, on West Main Street. The house was beautifully and tastefully decorated, palms, white lilies and apple blossoms predominating among a variety of other flowers and plants. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

The bride wore a blue cloth traveling dress, trimmed with yucca and Persian bands, and carried a bouquet of lilies, hat and gloves matched her costume. Miss Helen Smith, of Guilford, N. C., sister of the groom, and the maid of honor, wore a pongee gown trimmed with lace and a black picture hat. She carried roses. Mr. Fielding L. Walker, Jr., acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Henry Walker, Willis L. Gravelly, H. Burns Trundle and Captain J. A. White.

The presents were numerous and handsome, and attested the universal popularity of the accomplished bride. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the afternoon train for an extended bridal tour North.

Mr. J. C. Clifton, entertained the members of the Presbyterian choir and a few specially invited guests at a musicale at the home of his mother, on Wilson Street, Thursday night. The evening was given over to music and was thoroughly enjoyable. After a lengthy musical programme, in which all present contributed, delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. L. F. De Bordenare, of Norfolk, is visiting her father, Dr. L. Robinson, at her home on West Avenue.

Hon. George C. Cabell, Jr., of Norfolk, spent a few days in the city this week.

DANCE GIVEN BY THE STROLLERS

Gas Went Back on Alexandria Young People, but Another Hall Was Found

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, VA., April 18.—The Strollers, a number of well-known young people of this city, made arrangements to give a dance at the Alexandria Hotel, Wednesday evening. The orchestra arrived at the hour appointed, and numerous guests came down from Washington, but for some cause the gas refused to burn and the company was compelled to adjourn to O. F. Smith's hall, where the original programme was carried out.

Miss Sarah Howard Thursday evening charmingly entertained a number of her friends at a card party at her residence of her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard, on Cameron Street, in honor of her guest, Miss Gailner, of West Virginia.

First Lieutenant Alexander Murray, medical department of the United States army, left Thursday evening for San Francisco, whence he will sail the first of June for the Philippines. Murray has been assigned for duty. His family will accompany him across the Pacific. Dr. Murray graduated last spring from the Columbian University and last Tuesday he was a member of the graduating class of the United States Army Medical School in Washington.

The Board of Governors of the Alexandria Golf Club met Tuesday and elected several new members. It is announced that the membership is now full.

Miss Lucy Douglas, of this city, attended the hunt ball and point to point races held in Warrenton Wednesday by the Warrenton Hunt Club. The day before Miss Douglas was among the guests at a ball given in Rockville, Md.

Miss Rose Dobert, of Richmond, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Candler at their home on North St. Asaph Street for several days during the past week.

Miss Marion Grigg, of Georgetown, D. C., has been the guest of Mrs. R. C. Action at her home on King Street during the past week. Miss Grigg will sail for Europe next week.

Col. H. W. Garnett, who has been in Richmond, has returned to his home here.

"Sharps and Flats," a local musical organization of amateurs, held a banquet Thursday evening at the Hotel Apich. Before the musical and literary programme was rendered in Peabody Hall.

POST-LENTEN GAYETIES

The Event Here the Easter German at the Casino.

THE COMPASS WHIST CLUB

Entertained Wednesday Afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Pressey, of Hampton.
Mrs. L. C. Phillips Entertained at Cards on Wednesday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., April 18.—The beginning of the post-Lenten season was marked by a number of social events here this week. Several card clubs which disbanded for the Lenten season, held their first meetings and there were many other affairs. The event of the week, however, was the Easter german given at the Casino Friday night by the Junior German Club. Nearly all of the younger society people of the city attended the dance, and there were a number of visiting young ladies present. There were about forty couples on the floor, and the dance was gracefully led by Mr. O. H. Morrisette, who introduced a number of new and beautiful figures.

Mrs. Louis C. Phillips entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon at her home, on Fifty-fifth Street. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being yellow. The menu and score cards were daintily hand-painted. Among the guests were: Messdames Taylor and Walke, of Norfolk; Messdames William R. Aylett, Fred F. Allen, Aaron Jeffrey, J. L. Patton, Harvey L. Wilson, Lucio Morecock and Miss Bessie Aylett, of this city; Mrs. Frank Leake, of Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Nexsen entertained Wednesday evening in honor of their son, Mr. William Nexsen, and his bride, who was Miss Alice Rutter, of Portsmouth. Those who called were: Dr. and Mrs. Worthington and Mr. and Mrs. Suttler, of Hampton; Rev. Mr. Nexsen, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Parker Marston, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wertheimer, Captain and Mrs. J. G. Fleet, Mr. and Mrs. Lodevick, Mr. and Mrs. Danzonsbaker, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Holmes, Miss Eleanor Harris, Messrs. Harry Long and George Palmer, of this city. Messrs. Mabel Nexsen and Mary Weymouth served delightful refreshments and assisted in receiving.

The Compass Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Pressey, of Hampton. Those playing were: Mrs. Preston Roper and Miss Ann Wilson, of Petersburg; Mrs. McQuade, of Washington; Messdames J. W. Elliott, W. H. Taylor, George R. Dabney, S. H. Wertheimer, W. M. Young, Howe, W. Scott Boynton, Strother Smith, H. B. Bailey, Hawkins and Messrs. Berkeley Ellyson, Mary Reynolds and Howe.

GAY WEEK IN ASHEVILLE

The Biltmore Bazaar and the Horse Show Divide Interest

MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT

Her Presence as the Guest of Mrs. George Vanderbilt, the Patroness of the Bazaar, Was the Notable Feature of Both Occasions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 18.—The past week in social circles has been a very gay one. Interest was divided between the two great rival attractions, the Biltmore Charity Bazaar and the Horse Show. The former was under the personal direction of Mrs. George Vanderbilt, and the latter under the auspices of the Asheville Amateur Horse Show Association. Both proved to be a big success. The Biltmore Bazaar took place Thursday afternoon. There were Russian chapels, colonial towers, Dutch windmills, Italian flower bowers, a Japanese tea garden, and the weird and mystic tent of the learned astrologers from the East. Miss Alice Roosevelt and others of the members of Mrs. Vanderbilt's household were only too glad to be present on the occasion, but were active participants.

The Japanese booth was one of the most attractive features of the bazaar. Every detail was correctly carried out in making it ideally Japanese. There was a Japanese pavilion, presided over by tea maidens in elaborate Japanese costumes. Embroidered Japanese silks had been imported to be used as a part of the decoration. There was wisteria and cherry blossoms in profusion. The predominant colors were pale pink and lavender. This booth was in charge of Miss Woolsey and Miss Weston.

Mrs. Joseph M. Gazzam of Philadelphia, was high priestess of the temple of occult science. Her assistants were Mrs. Beckman Lorillard, of New York, and Miss Beale, of Arden.

The Russian chapel was presided over by Mrs. Rodney Rush Swope. Mrs. Vanderbilt received many congratulations upon the success of her undertaking.

The Horse Show proved even a bigger society function than the Biltmore Bazaar. Entries were numerous, and there was a gorgeous array of smart turnouts, hullo-hos, four-in-hands, road wagons, etc. Five of Mr. Vanderbilt's favorite horses were entered, a number of silver harnesses were awarded. The donors were Dr. S. Westray Battle, W. E. Carlin, H. Littlefield, The Kentucky Park Hotel, Victoria Inn, the Albemarle Park, T. C. Cooke and Charles McNamee.

On Wednesday evening a german was given at the Biltmore Park Hotel. Several dances are planned for next week.

The Swannanoa Country Club is arranging for a continuous round of social functions during the Southern Golf Tournament to be held here early next month. There will be dances, luncheons, break parties, etc.

Among the week's arrivals are Mrs. Augustus Van Wyck and Mrs. James W. Cairns, of New York, who are at Battery Park.

"Just for Fun" at Waverly.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WAVERLY, VA., April 18.—An appreciative audience assembled in the Town Hall Thursday night to witness the presentation of the bright, clever, society comedy, entitled "Just for Fun," under the management of Mrs. Dr. John P. May. Those who took part were Messdames Van West and Vergie Robinson, Messrs. Louis Arnold and Ballie Burt, and Messrs. B. W. Justice and R. O. Rogers. Too much cannot be said in praise of the manner in which each one acquitted him or herself, and it would be difficult to decide who made the greatest hit. The costumes were exceedingly handsome, and with the stage settings, made a brilliant and effective scene. Mrs. May has been requested to repeat the play for the benefit of the Confederate Veterans of America.
